CHAS. SEDELMAYER, Publisher and Art-dealer, Paris, has the richest stock of original pictures in Europe.

His gallery includes about 1000 works by Old Masters, of which this Catalogue describes only a portion, and a similar number of pictures by living artists, and painters of the Barbizon School.

He publishes every year a selection of fine and important plates, of which only a small number of proofs are printed.

He has just issued the fourth volume of a most extensive book in 8 volumes on Rembrandt, containing reproductions of all the pictures of this master; the text by Doctor W. Bode, Director of the Berlin Gallery. Subscriptions now received.

The prospectus of this book, and illustrated catalogues of other publications, to be had at CHAS. SEDELMAYER's, 6, rue de La Rochefoucauld, Paris.

36. — A Waterfall

Described in Smith's Catalogue (part. VI, p. 37, n° 114) as follows :

« A grand mountainous scene, traversed from the left, in an oblique direction, to the opposite side, by a rapid stream, which rolls in white foam among fragments of rocks to the foreground. The view is also identified by a wooden bridge over a narrow chasm on the right, which a woman with a bundle on her head is passing ; and at the same time a man stands by the railing at the side. On the opposite side of the water is a low house ; a second house is seen beyond it, and still farther are clusters of pine trees, which conceal the base of the mountain. Part of a high cliff, surmounted by a few bushes, is on the left, near the bridge, from whence the eye looks to a woody dell. »

PRESS OPINIONS

The Times, London, May 21, 1896.

.....
No such monument has ever been erected to any painter. To attempt such a work at all, three things were necessary — photography with its modern development, enterprise, and a critical authority as complete as Dr. Bode's is.

The Times, London, April 14, 1897.

We commend this book as a wonderful result of modern reconstructive scholarship, zeal, and enterprise. When the eight volumes are completed, they will be quite indispensable to every library which concerns itself with the history of art.

The Times, London, January 7, 1898.

The second of the eight volumes of this important and splendid work has just been issued by M. Sedelmeyer and is not less carefully executed than the first. The volume as a whole, like its predecessor, represents all that scholarship, care and money can do towards the erection of a worthy monument to Rembrandt's memory.

Illustrated London News, April 25, 1896.

The value and beauty of this collection, which exceeds anything before attempted, are beyond controversy.

The Daily Telegraph, London, October 22, 1896.

The work will be a veritable monument to the genius of the very greatest of all painters.

American Register, Paris, March 27, 1897.

A magnificent work of art, at which no less a connoisseur than Mr. Charles Sedelmeyer, the well-known dealer and expert in art, in collaboration with Director Bode, has been working for fully fifteen years, has at last been completed. It is the richly illustrated edition in eight large volumes of « l'Oeuvre Complet de Rembrandt, » a veritable literary and artistic monument to the great Dutch master, all of whose works, scattered throughout the world, have here been reproduced in heliogravure, with full descriptive text. The first volume has made its appearance, and, as might well have been foreseen, does great credit to the enterprising editor as well as to France.

The Collector. New-York, April 15, 1897.

Nothing has yet been done, either in honour of any single artist or for the recording of his works, to even approach « The Complete Work of Rembrandt » which is published by M. Sedelmeyer, of Paris.... It comes in the shape of a fat folio, of the most sumptuous form of artistic embellishment and typography, and, entirely apart from its magnificence as an art work, is a book of reference no true collector can fail to appreciate.

The Art Amateur. New-York, September, 1899.

We have already spoken in terms of the highest praise of the first two volumes of this magnificent work. The third is, if possible, still more remarkable. In it, Dr. Bode, as biographer, has reached one of the most interesting periods of Rembrandt's artistic career, that immediately succeeding his marriage, and leads with a series of biblical and mythological compositions — and the portraits and studies connected with them — including some of the painter's acknowledged master-pieces.

We need not expatiate on the importance of Dr. Bode's « Rembrandt » to collectors. It promises to be the first really adequate representation of a great painter's work. Mr. Sedelmeyer's courage, taste, and judgment cannot be too liberally acknowledged. He is producing a monograph, which will be of inestimable advantage to all serious students of art, and one which we are entitled to hope will be accepted as a standard for other publications of the kind. It would certainly be difficult to imagine anything more perfect than the way in which the work, literary, artistic, and mechanical, has, thus far, been done. The text is, in its completeness and reliability, worthy of the great artist to which it is devoted, and the illustrations, reproduced by the heliogravure process, are worthy of the text.

The Art Amateur. June, 1900.

Of this great work, issued in magnificent style by Mr. Sedelmeyer, the fourth volume, dealing with one of the most important periods of the artist's life, that included between the dates 1637-45, has just been issued.

.....
As in the other volumes, previously reviewed, the reproductions include every picture belonging to the period under consideration.

.....
It will take four more volumes and a supplement to finish the work, making it the most extended and the most complete literary and artistic monument ever built up to the fame of any painter.
